Y-27

THE WARRINGTON MEETING HOUSE

Located near Rossville, this is one of the finest examples of early Quaker meeting hauses in the United States. It was erected in 1769 and enlarged in 1782. The exteriar walls are covered by Virginia creeper.

Color Photo by Marshall Dussinger

Published by STEL-MAR, 329 Rhoda Dr., Lancaster, Penna.

60699

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

POST CARD

Address